Final Project – International Cultures and Cuisines

Cuisine Travel Guide

Pretend you are a travel agent. Part of your job involves designing a travel brochure for an “International Cuisines” travel package being offered by your company. Design a travel brochure for a country of your choice. Provide some background on the country and then focus on the cuisine so that people will want to visit the country. Include graphics, and/or drawings or pictures from newspapers or magazines in the brochure. Use your creativity to develop a descriptive, interesting brochure rather than a fact sheet.
